

I'm Tired of Mincing Words about Free Will

This meme says it so well:

But in terms of Platonic Surrealism?

It's easy.

Too easy.

So the 'ONE', the 'ONE BEING', of which everything is a subcomponent.

Using the formal Definitions only, the entire ORGANISM has limitless free will.

And as we are a part of that unbound being, we FEEL that we have unlimited free will.

And in fact, to add more detail, in the far far future so to speak,

The group of Monads that streams AWARENESS back to us, so that we might live as movie characters, has TREMENDOUS 'free will'.

If one of those monads or monad groups wants something, it JUST HAPPENS.

Now if groups of monad groups 'go at it', then there are only INPUTS to free will, and who knows how it will turn out.

That sort of thing often triggers a 'safe play zone' such as a Universe, to eat popcorn and to see how the little game turns out.

But none of that matters.

The gist for us 'humans'?

All the decisions were already made, and we 'Live in the Past'.

Now 'something of us' lives in the future too, but here and now, with these 'Donald Hoffman Blinders' on, we don't often see that.

But we FEEL IT.

So, what to do?

Sit and do nothing, because we don't have free will?

Not at all.

FIGHT LIKE HELL.

If you want.

And whatever 'sticks'?

That was what had already happened.

So, enjoy your 'free will'.

It's both 'genuine',

but you also have our nose up the ass of the dog ahead of you.

Amor Fati -Nietzsche

It also means 'Love your Life'.

Go ahead.

Love it.

YOU ARE THE LEAD DOG

and as an unbound being.

YOU ARE ALSO THE DOG WITH YOUR NOSE UP THE NEXT DOGS ASS.

"God" is one kink ass bastitch.

Just have fun with it.

Better than crying.

But you are FREE!

Don't you see?

The decisions are all made.

YOU CANNOT POSSIBLY SCREW UP.

But you still have the FEEL and the APPEARANCE of 'free will'.

You have both.

It's the best possible news.

BTW, hats off to Bernardo Kastrup. He writes about his too, and he's AWESOME.
