

The Really Short Version of Platonic Surrealism

This is the really short version of Platonic Surrealism:

"There is only one AWARENESS that in conjunction with un-moved POTENTIALITY, powers everything.

It is in fact US that has the active roles, not some transcendent thing separate from us.

It's all here, right here, right now and there is no place to escape from OUR OWN UNBOUNDED BEING.

The only apparent 'binding' is the fact that we are a play and movie-holic, and we cannot escape our own nature.

This is who and what we are...AWARENESS ,watching all the movies that we produce, direct and star in.

Just do SOMETHING, with our heart and mind in it, and all is good.

Try to have a good time, and bitching to the management is pointless.

It just fills our inbox."
